

Online seminar

SIG ROLE
Memory Culture in Literature Education
May 20–21, 2021

The Special Interest Group on Research on Literature Education (ROLE) welcomes you to the online seminar Memory Culture in Literature Education.

Thursday, May 20

(Time zone: Helsinki, Finland)

10.00 – 10.15	Welcome
	SIG Coordinators Irene Pieper and Heidi Höglund
10.15 – 11.15	Plenary lecture
	Rutu Modan	The unappeased yearning to return
	Comics artist and Professor at Bezalel Academy for Arts & Design
11.15 – 11.30	Short break
11.30 – 12.30	Session 1
	A. Karolina Szymborska	Children Studies and Memory Practices in Education: Revisiting Past and Present Approaches
	B. Sotiria Kalasaridou	Teaching Holocaust Literature in Low Secondary Education: Representations of Cultural Memory and Trauma
	C. Helen Lehndorf & Volker Pietsch	Crossing Media, Generations and Inner German borders? – Remembrance of the East German balloon escape in Literary Education Through Contemporary Genre Entertainment
12.30 – 13.30	Lunch break
13.30 – 14.30	Session 2
	A. Ilana Elkad-Lehman	Who's Memory Is It? Teaching Literature in a Multicultural Context
	B. Smadar Falk-Peretz	Teaching Holocaust Literature: Course Dynamics & Dilemmas
	C. Michal Ganz-Meishar & Gal Ventura	From Collective Memory to Personal Memories – Contributions of the Program "What Reads There?"

Friday, May 21
(Time zone: Helsinki, Finland)

10.00 – 11.00	Artist-talk	Iris Argaman and Hadas Leibovich
11.00 – 12.00	Session 3
	A. Gal Manor	Israel's Memorial Day and Popular Culture: Three Mourning Songs
	B. Yael Segev	Between Memorial Books and Literature: Ways of Confronting the Subject of Death in Religious Children's Literature
	C. Agnieszka Kania	What memory? Polish and American Children Books About the Holocaust
12.00 – 12.30	Break
12.30 – 13.30	Session 4
	A. Batia Appelfeld	Reclaiming the Self
	B. Pnina Rosenberg	When History Becomes His/Her Story: Anne Frank's Diary as a Graphic Novel
	C. Beatrice Finet	Between Education and Instruction, What Transmission of the Shoah in Children's Books in France?
	D. Marco Magirus	Support in the Literature Classroom – Effect of a Potential Quality Feature in Conversations about Literature
13.30 – 14.30	Lunch break
14.30 – 15.15	Keynote talk
	Yaakova Sacerdoti Professor at Levinsky College of Education	An Allegorical Trinity: The Beast is Dead — The Second World War Among the Animals (1944)
15.15 – 16.00	Closing of the seminar and discussion of upcoming meetings and conference

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

ZOOM	A zoom link will be sent out to registered participants about a week before the seminar.
PAYMENT	The seminar has a fee of 50 Euros. Information about payment is sent out via e-mail and the payment is handled by ARLE, International Association for Research in L1 Education.
VIDEO PRESENTATIONS	A link to the recorded video presentations will be sent out to registered participants about a week before the seminar.
CONTACT INFORMATION	Coordinators for Special Interest Group on Research on Literature Education Irene Pieper, Freie Universität Berlin, Germany: irene.pieper@fu-berlin.de Heidi Höglund, Åbo Akademi University, Finland: heidi.hoglund@abo.fi